The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Nahum 1:7

The prophet Nahum tells us that: "The Lord is good, a refuge in time of trouble. He cares for those who trust in him."

Friends, please bow with me: O Loving Lord, again and again You grant to those who serve You such incredible blessings and mercies. And these gifts You bestow typically arrive at the exact moment we most need them, thanks to Your wonderful grace. Indeed, may each one of us in this Senate, O God, trust in You unfailingly, praising You for each blessing You have already granted, but remaining determined to bring about even greater good for all of our citizens. In that regard we also thank You, dear Lord, for each one of South Carolina's brave and bold peace officers, EMTs, and firefighters, remembering today especially Clinton firefighter Michael Vinson, who died tragically this past Sunday while responding to an emergency call. God bless all who trust in You and who serve others without hesitation. We humbly pray this in Your loving and blessed name, O Lord. Amen.
