Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill will have minimal impact on the Department of Motor Vehicles. Some additional costs are expected but they can be absorbed by the agency's Other Funds. There will be no cost to the General Fund or Federal Funds.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

State Expenditure

This bill enacts the Bicycle and Pedestrian Safety Act by amending Section 56-5-3520 to provide that bicycles with helper motors shall be subject to all the rights and duties of bicycles. It also amends Section 56-1-1710 relating to mopeds to provide that this section does not apply to motorcycles or bicycles. An amendment to section 56-5-990 addresses pedestrian control signals to provide that a pedestrian may cross if he can complete the crossing during the remaining time on the countdown indicator. This bill will have minimal expenditure impact on the Department of Motor Vehicles. Some additional costs are expected but they can be absorbed by the agency's Other Funds. There will be no cost to the General Fund or Federal Funds.
