The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Philippians 4:4

In Philippians we find Paul telling us to: “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice!”

Dear friends, please bow with me as we pray: O gracious and Ever-loving God, we do rejoice as we thank You for the manifold blessings that surround all of us here in South Carolina. Indeed, wherever we might turn, we readily note the many reasons for us to praise You, to lift up to You our heartfelt gratitude. So today, Lord, we ask You to guide this Senate as these women and men continue to work together to provide for the wise and careful use of our natural resources, to tap into the marvelous wealth of opportunities that are before our people, and to develop further the unlimited talent that our citizens themselves offer. May we unfailingly rejoice as these Senators work together to make the best use of our Carolina treasures, doing so unfailingly for the benefit of all. In Your wondrous name we pray, O Lord. Amen.

Remarks by Senator GUSTAFSON

Good morning! We have a packed house inside and out, which is a great audience for what I would like to share today. I have not spoken from the well this year very much. This message is directed towards every legislator in this Body, including the House and the Senate. It is also directed to every person who is running for office. I don't care what level that might be.

One of the many reasons I ran for office is related to our extremely toxic political environment, so I thought I could do things in a different way. I thought I could be a different kind of leader. And I wanted to show how to lead by example without the mudslinging, the lies and the name-calling. My goal has always been to lead effectively with decency, common sense and grace. And I have done my best, but like most, I have fallen short of that goal at times.

We are not supposed to talk about campaign stuff, so I'll make a general statement. We are in "primary season," and I think people sometimes lose their minds when running for office. The pressure is on everyone involved and when you are in the process -- inside the bubble - it's really easy to lose your perspective. I just want to make a few observations and give some of my infamous unsolicited advice.

First of all, if you don't have a true will to serve, please don't run for office. Secondly, if you don't like talking with people, please don't run for any office, because the people are why you would be in that office. Finally, if you don't have enough good stuff to say about yourself--including what you have done, want to do or could do, please -- if you cannot promote yourself, don't run. If running to trash someone or discredit is your primary reason for entering politics, and I have seen that in the past, please don't run. You might even win accidentally, and then your poor constituents are stuck with someone who has no personal direction and is there for the wrong reasons.

The public wants to have faith, trust and respect in our elected officials. I am proud to be a State Senator here. I think our Body works very well together, and we show respect towards one another. I'm very proud of that fact. People do watch us, and our actions speak far, far more than our words. We need to step it up -- all of us!

I have distributed a poem, but I am not going to read it. It is a famous poem by Rudyard Kipling, and I carried a copy in my wallet for ten years. My eighth grade English teacher, Faye Gools, by made us memorize it, and it's just a road map. For those who did not get a copy, google it, because it is a great poem that inspired me to speak here in our last weeks of session.

We are dealing with difficult topics, important things, and we all need to show grace -- and that also means the people in the lobby or up there in the gallery or in the House. We can move forward, and we can pass good Legislation. Let's be humble and show grace and forgive one another.

On motion of Senator DAVIS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator GUSTAFSON, were ordered printed in the Journal.

terms and provisions of each revitalization agreement must be determined by negotiations between the council and the qualifying business. The decision to enter into a revitalization agreement with a qualifying business is solely within the discretion of the council based on the appropriateness of the negotiated incentives to the project and the determination that approval of the project is in the best interests of the State. The revitalization agreement must set a date by which the qualifying business shall have ~~completed the project~~ met the required investment and employment levels. ~~Within three months of the completion date~~ After meeting the thresholds, the qualifying business shall document the actual costs of the project in a manner acceptable to the council. A business is allowed to count jobs filled by remote employees towards the minimum employment levels. While remote employees count towards a business's minimum employment levels, a business may claim job development credits on a remote employee only to the extent the remote employee was subject to withholdings pursuant to Chapter 8. A business which pays withholdings on a remote employee in South Carolina and some other state can only claim job development credits to the extent of the South Carolina withholdings.

~~—(B) If a qualifying business that entered into a revitalization agreement before January 1, 1997, receives council approval to amend its revitalization agreement to increase its minimum job requirement, the law in effect on the date of the amendment determines the amount of job development credit a qualifying business may claim pursuant to Section 12-10-80 for additional jobs created after the date of the amendment. This subsection does not apply to a business whose application for job development fees or credits pursuant to Section 12-10-81 has been approved by council before the effective date of this act.~~

(b) where one or more taxpayers invests a minimum aggregate capital investment of at least seventy-five million dollars in real or personal property or both over a five year period;

Also, the five year period begins upon notification.

(2) Once the ~~taxpayer datacenter~~ collectively meets the requirements of subitem (B)(5), or at the end of the five year period, the ~~taxpayer datacenter~~ shall notify the Department of Revenue, in writing, whether it has or has not met the requirements of subitem (B)(5). The ~~taxpayer datacenter~~ shall provide the proof the department determines necessary to determine that the requirements have been met.

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 2024

(D)(1) Upon notifying each department of its intention to claim the exemption pursuant to subitem (C)(1), and upon certification by the Department of Commerce, the ~~taxpayer-datacenter~~ may claim the exemption on eligible purchases at any time during the period provided in Section 12-54-85(F), including the time period prior to subitem (B)(5)(iv) being satisfied.
