~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk Jr. as follows:

Our thought for today is from I Colossians 7:24: “So brothers and sisters in whatever condition each was called there let him or her remain with God.”

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, You reach out every day to touch the lives of all Your people. Grant us Your grace as You continue Your presence in our lives as we go about the business at hand. Bless and keep in Your loving care, our defenders and those who respond to our call and those who give of their time and effort to keep us in Your vineyard. Bestow Your blessings on our World, Nation, President, State, Governor Speaker, Staff, and all who suffer so that we might enjoy freedom. Remember our hidden wounds. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, January 17, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. DILLARD moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Ruth Ann Butler of Greenville, which was agreed to.

Ms. Ruth Ann Butler

Ms. Ruth Ann Butler was a Greenville native and civil rights activist, who dedicated her life to education and the preservation of Black history in Greenville. A graduate of Sterling High School and Benedict College, she taught in the public schools of South Carolina and Georgia for 18 years. After visiting an African American Museum in Tennessee, Ms. Butler set her sights on bringing something similar to her community and answering what she believed was her true calling. In 1987, she founded the Greenville Cultural Exchange Center to raise awareness of contributions made by Black people in the Upstate and also promote economic empowerment within the community, doubling as an education and research center. In 2024, Butler received a South Carolina Historic Preservation Stewardship Award from the South Carolina Department of Archives and History, Preservation South Carolina and the Office of the Governor for her important work. She was also a recipient of the Martin Luther King Service Award at the Unity Park.

Ms. Ruth Ann Butler leaves a legacy that will be celebrated for generations to come and it is an honor to pause in our deliberations today to reflect on her life.
